

WEDDINGS AND NEWS OF THE SUMMER RESORTS

Miss Sara B. Dolan
and C. P. Denckla
Secretly Married

Announced Their Engagement
in June, Although Wedded
Since March 16.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Aug. 27.—Friends of Miss Sara B. Dolan of Devon, and Mr. C. P. Denckla of Chestnut Hill, were amazed to-day to learn that at the time their engagement was formally announced on June 4 they had been married nearly three months. This revelation came to-day with the announcement of the marriage by Miss Dolan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Dolan of Chestnut Hill, Pa. All hold leading places in society here.

The marriage took place March 16 at the home of Miss Dolan's aunt, Mrs. Key Canine, 127 East Forty-sixth street, New York. Three months later the engagement was announced to society, and October 1 was given as the date for the wedding, which was to take place at Chestnut Hill.

The bride and her husband went ahead with their plans for the fall ceremony as though they were not already married. They even arranged for the ushers.

The parents of the bride knew nothing whatever of the wedding until recently, Mrs. Dolan said to-day.

More than a year ago the engagement of Miss Dolan to Mr. Bulkeley, formerly of Boston, was announced. This engagement was broken early last fall. The bride's mother before her marriage was Miss Isabel Hoffman. Messrs. Thomas Dolan 3d, Hoffman Dolan and Brooks Dolan are brothers. Her father, a member of many prominent clubs, is a director of the United Gas Improvement Company, of which his father, the late Thomas Dolan, was president.

Mr. Denckla, who is the son of Mr. Herman Denckla of Chestnut Hill, is a brother of Mrs. Le Grand B. Cannon of New York, who was Miss Pauline C. Denckla, and of Mrs. J. Francis R. Packard of Rosemont, who was Miss Mary T. Denckla. Miss Patty T. Denckla, another sister, has not yet made her debut.

JONES—BURNHAM.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
MANCHESTER, Vt., Aug. 27.—Miss Barbara Burnham, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Clark Burnham of Brooklyn, was married to-day to Mr. Cyril Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Myers Richardson Jones of 274 Henry street, Brooklyn, in St. Paul's Church. The reception was held on the lawn of the ancestral home of Mrs. Burnham. In the presence of a host of friends, the bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. William G. Wilson of Brooklyn, as matron of honor and her sister, Miss Katherine Burnham, as maid of honor.

Mr. Jones was attended by his brother, Mr. Sydney Warfield Jones, as best man. The ushers were Dr. Douglas Parker, Mr. Rowell Parker, Mr. Robert Burnham and Mr. Lyman Burnham of Brooklyn and Mr. R. M. Johnson. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father T. H. Mullet of St. Paul's Church at Manchester.

SOUTHAMPTON COLONY OUT IN FORCE FOR WEEKLY TEA DANCE

Numerous Dinners Precede
Evening Gathering at the Meadow Club.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
SOUTHAMPTON, L. I., Aug. 27.—The summer colony turned out in force this afternoon for the weekly tea dance at the Shinnecock Hills Golf Club, where Princess Miguel de Braganza and Mrs. George Barton French were hostesses.

There were to-night numerous dinners preceding the dance at the Meadow Club, where several hundred gathered. These dances have been among the agreeable features of the season, and the society by Miss Byrne's orchestra was conducive to dancing, as was also the temperature, which was more like that of late September.

One of the largest dinners of the night was given at the club by Mr. and Mrs. Edmund S. Twining, Jr., among whose guests were Mr. and Mrs. Louis du Pont Irving, Mr. and Mrs. John Alden Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. Courtenay Lord, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund P. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clifford West, Jr., Miss Florence Ellsworth, Duncan S. Ellsworth, Jr., Miss Florence Johnson, Miss Lillian Sullivan, Henry Surwit, Jr., Kenneth R. Stevenson, Charles G. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. P. Hamilton Davis, Henry E. Cox, Jr., and John Stohl.

Another of the dinners was given at the club by Mrs. Rawson L. Wood, whose guests included Mrs. Joseph E. Widener and Austin Gray, members of the house party of Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner W. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. John Waterbury, Mr. and Mrs. Newell W. Tilton, Mrs. Dixon Wright, Juan M. C. Ballou, W. Beverley Rogers, J. W. Fuller, Putnam and Charles E. Mitchell.

Among those who dined with Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Dana were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pelham Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. S. Oakley Van der Poel, Mr. and Mrs. Lytton Fox and Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Daly, who returned from Europe recently, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. James W. Gerard at the club to-morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome N. Bonaparte and Mr. and Mrs. Myra C. Bonaparte, Monday, and while there will be at Hill Top Inn. They will go to the Virginia Hot Springs about September 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson L. Robinson, who have been in Europe several months, have arrived at the Corners, their villa in First Neck Lane.

Percy Bramwell, who recently made a trip to the Land of the Midnight Sun, is visiting Mrs. Henry Asher Robbins at Asher House.

J. Henri Barclay has joined Mrs. Barclay, who is with Mrs. Frederick Martin in Europe.

William Henry Harris is at the National Golf Club.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 27.—For the closing day's play of tennis in the Davis cup final, the afternoon was a day of numbers and the boxes at the Casino were almost all occupied. There was so much conversation and merriment during the play this morning that Mr. Craig Biddle, chairman of the tennis committee, was obliged to request persons in the boxes and grand stand to remain quiet.

Display of gowns to-day was equal to that on other occasions, and there were a few which were especially attractive. Miss Roberta Willard wore a white pleated skirt topped with a large blue bow, and in blue Oriental figure and a large blue straw hat draped with deep blue satin ribbons.

Miss Martha Colman was entertaining Lady Blackwood in her boudoir. Mrs. George Henry Warren, Jr., wore a gown of peach Canton crepe in one piece, her hat being of slightly deeper shade.

Mrs. Benjamin Hyde Ripley was in purple satin, with a black satin opera cloak and a large straw hat of deep blue.

Miss Evelyn Loew was in French velvet of white and blue figures and had a large straw hat.

Mrs. Lorillard Spencer wore bright green and the gown was in one piece. Her straw hat was draped with ribbons in wheel effect.

Mrs. Marion Eppey was in blue and white foulard and wore a pheasant turban.

Miss Elizabeth Robinson wore an Oriental costume in one piece, of cream and pink, with a pink and blue striped. The upper part of her garment was decorated with Oriental figures in pink and blue and her hat was of the same material.

Mrs. James Roche gave a luncheon at the Hill Top Inn this afternoon for eighteen guests. Dr. and Mrs. Alexander Hamilton Rice were dinner hosts at Miramar this evening.

Other dinners Sunday will be by Mrs. Adolphus Stator, wife of Commander Stator, U. S. N., at the Casino grill and Mrs. James Roche, Darlington, at The Corners. A luncheon was given to-day by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Rhineland and to-morrow Mrs. Frederick Pearson will give a dinner and Mrs. William Fainstock a luncheon.
